

FOCUS ON FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Because cash, securities, and other monetary instruments are a primary target for theft, embezzlement, and other related crimes, banks and financial institutions require an extremely professional level of security planning, prevention and protection.

Andrews International brings to its clients an integrated approach to security that provides a range of services and a proven level of reliability to meet both the conventional and extended security needs of the industry.

Professionals from Andrews International focus on threat assessments, situation analysis, and meticulous planning to identify problems and issues before they arise. Facilities protection requires the highest level of security services related to access control, ingress and egress monitoring, after-hours protection, patrols, and alarm monitoring.

Among the key services provided by the firm are:

- Threat assessments
- Facilities protection
- Crisis management center
- Consulting and investigations
- Emergency/unusual event response
- Robbery prevention and avoidance
- Preventive patrols
- Alarm monitoring and response
- Security audits of ATMs and other off-site facilities
- Armed and unarmed security officers
- High-risk currency transportation

Andrews International is a management-and systems-driven company whose professionals have created and constantly refine an approach that evolves to meet the needs of its banks and other financial institutions clients. Company management works closely with clients to create customized security programs that focus on advance planning and preparation for all contingencies.

The company's web-based workforce management system allows management to integrate personnel scheduling, accounting, and account performance analysis. Its human resources tool tracks each employee's performance and other information.

Andrews International also excels in account transition, rapidly becoming familiar with the client's needs, processes, policies, and systems, in a seamless and transparent manner. The company's performance scorecard identifies key drivers that serve as a baseline for performance measurement.

The selection and training of Andrews International personnel are critical to the company's successful track record with financial institutions and related clients. The company's rigorous selection process includes thorough testing, background checks, past performance analysis, personality/integrity profiles, and other standards.

A comprehensive training program assures that Andrews International security personnel meet the highest standards of the industry, while personnel retention is much higher than the industry norm due to superior compensation packages and benefits.

Among industry organizations in which the company is active are:

- American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS)
- International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP)
- International Association of Bomb Technicians and Investigators (IABTI)
- Overseas Security Advisory Council (OSAC)